Isis Temple No. 41 Newsletter

Queen's Message

Happy New Year!

We had a great Christmas season, beginning with the Christmas Party following the Stated Session, hosted by the Egyptian Band. We had so much food and the voluntary gift exchange with the game was fun. A big Kudos to the Egyptian Band!

Thank you to the officers, the units and the Past Queens for your hospitality and friendship extended to me during this season as well as the past year. The best part is for the remembrance, Stepping Stones to Happiness were given and the children are the benefactors!

Congratulations to Pr. Michelle Brummett for winning the quilt. She jumped for joy all the way to claim her quilt. Way to go, Michelle.

This is my last newsletter as Queen. I would like to say thanks to the Past Queens, Officers, Units, and Ladies of the Household for all of your help and support. It seems like we just got started, but then again, we still have three months remaining.

Our next Stated Session is Monday, January 5, 2015. Our Temple would like to know if any of our Ladies of the Household would like to represent us at The Supreme Temple Daughters of the Nile. If you are interested, please write a letter of intention and mail it to: Jerry Brenner, Pr. Recorder by December 31, 2014 at 505 Beachfront Drive, Evansville IN 47715

These will be read and we will vote on them that evening. We will also have our Memorial Service to remember the ones who died during the past year.

On February 2, 2015 we will have a Stated Session Ceremonial. At our Stated Session on March 2, we will have the election of officers.

If you have any questions or need information, please email me at jyakers@aol.com or call me 812-568-6467. I look forward to seeing you at the Nile meetings. Please seek me out before the meeting for the word or just to say howdy.

May each of you have a happy and prosperous New Year!
Love to all of you shining stars,
Janice Akers-Du Bois, Queen

Hugs to all,

It is hard to believe we are coming to the end of another year. I hope everyone had fun at the Daughters of the Nile Christmas party following the December Stated Session. We had some great fun and fellowship. If you were unable to attend, we missed you and hope to see you in January.

I am amazed at how fast time flies (when you are having fun). The New Year will be upon us in no time and with it comes new and exciting adventures. I continue to thank each and every one of you for your support, hugs, smiles and good thoughts. It is such a privilege to belong to such a great group of women.

If anyone is interested in being more active in 2015, please do not hesitate to reach out and talk with me.

Nile love,

Happy Holidays, Ladies!

I hope you are finding opportunities to rest and reflect during this busy season. As the New Year approaches, I find myself reflecting on my busy life and I wonder; how can I live more in the moment? How can I still honor the many obligations and responsibilities I have and yet breathe and take each moment in? I think that goal stands just beyond my reach and yet; it is a worthy one! Perhaps we can all plan for the future, let go of the past, and live in the present. I pray this for us all.

As I have stated before, we service the St. Louis Shriners Hospital as well as others in the area as needed. They have requested gift cards to Target and Walmart, specifically. I know they will appreciate them any time of year. You can bring these and any other items to me at Stated Session in January, February, and March. We also collect soup labels, can tabs, and back to school coupons. Please bag these separately and I will love you for life! We could also always use the following for our welcome bags:

Toothbrushes	Toothpaste	Combs	Notebooks (small)
Soaps		Shampoos	Conditioners
Body Wash		Deodorant	Pens

Thank you so much for all you do!

Nile Love and Hugs,

Jennifer Nance

Hello, ladies!

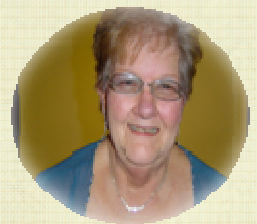

Another year has come and gone, and I'm wishing you all the best for a healthy and happy 2015. Another Ceremonial is right around the corner on February 2nd, and I'm excited to see how many new candidates we will welcome to our order. I hope you plan to attend and welcome our newest members of Daughters of the Nile. Thank you all for your commitment to our organization throughout the year. You are an amazing group of ladies!

As we go through these winter months, I have one request for each of you. If you know a member homebound or in a nursing facility, check in on her and offer her your warm spirit during this cold season. If you know a member who doesn't see well enough to drive at night or doesn't care to drive in the wintery weather, offer her a ride to Stated Session, quilting, unit meetings or other Nile events. The smallest gesture can often have the greatest impact.

Ladies of the Household:

I want to say thank you, for the most amazing year of kindness, love, fellowship, laughter and sunshine.

Wishing you and your family a very Happy New Year, full of joy, happiness, good health and a new beginning ridding ourselves of all doubts and fear.

May God bless and keep you safe and God's healing grace be with you. Please contact me anytime about our sick and shut-ins.

May God bless,
Sharon Harbison, Pr. Chaplain

Ladies:

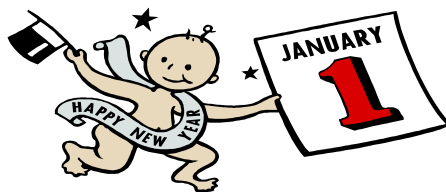

Thank you so much for all of your help! We are so fortunate to have ladies that are so talented and willing to give of their time. Our sewing and quilting could not be accomplished without you!

If you or you or someone you know would like to join us for fun and fellowship, we always have something that you can help with. We meet each Monday at 10:00 am and break for lunch around noon. Just stop by when your time permits. We are on the 2nd floor of Hadi.

Looking forward to seeing you!

Ways and Means Report

Hello!

As always, thank you all for your continued support of NILE through donated time and money. The Cozzzy Comfy Sheet Sale is ongoing, so, if you are interested in purchasing the sheets, please see any of the Ways and Means Committee members to place an order.

Our next fundraising event will be the Sock Hop. This event will be held at SWIRCA's Ivy Room on February 21, from 5:00 PM-10:00 PM. The price per ticket, per person, is $20.00. Stay tuned for further details. We would love to see you there!

Thank you and have a wonderful holiday season!

Thank you for your continued support!

DON FOUNDATION NEWS

Sue Layman, PSQ

Holiday greetings from the Daughters of the Nile Foundation.

The Foundation sincerely appreciates your donations throughout the year and your generosity in giving to the Holiday Sharing program in December.

Ladies, you should also enjoy the article in the most recent Foundation newsletter about our precious "Raindrops" who, through their efforts, contributed to the Foundation. It was an enjoyable, heartwarming experience for all who attended that Stated Session. Thank all of you for your continuing support to assist the patients of the Shriners Hospitals for Children®.

Things I wish I had known earlier and things I'm still trying to learn.

1. Not everything is about you. Sometimes it's about others. Let them have their turn.
 2. Know that you are whole. You have everything that you need. Look around and see who needs you.
 3. Say yes to everything that will make life better and no to anything that makes it worse.
 4. Clean as you go. Keep short accounts. Pay your debts on time. Don't let the sun go down on your anger or your dishes.
 5. You can get grease spots out of most anything with baby powder (sprinkle it on, rub it in, brush it off with a damp cloth, repeat until the spot is gone) but nothing erases an unkind word.
 6. If you have to swallow a frog don't look at it too long before you put it in your mouth; if you have to swallow two frogs, go for the big one first, and then if you have to swallow three frogs, you might ask yourself what you're doing in the pond.
 7. Be your own best friend, not your worst enemy, Love your body. Take care of it. Change it if you must any way you see fit. But remember it's the only one you'll get, so try to make it last.
 8. Surround yourself with beauty. Flowers on the table. Birds in the window. Wind in your hair. Sand beneath your feet.
 9. Do the right thing for yourself and for others and the world. The wrong thing may be easier or even more fun but in the long run, it's hard to live with.
 10. Smile at everyone-older people, children and strangers. It might not do much for them, but it will make you feel better.
 11. Be thankful. Think about it. It's not hard to do. Start each day by consciously noting five things you are truly grateful for.
 12. Make and keep at least one longtime friend who reads you like a book, likes you anyway and will always have your back and your trust.

News from the Dancers & Pageantry

The Dancers and Pageantry would like to wish everyone a blessed New Year.

We are in search of new members who are interested in performing a flag routine. We will continue to work on our present routines but would like to add a new dimension to our performances. If you are interested in joining our unit, please contact us.

We are currently selling Lady Jayne jewelry. There is a very pretty Daughters of the Nile pendant and earrings. If you are interested in seeing the jewelry, please contact PQ Kathy Widick 812-473-0462.

Happy New Year!

The Patrol had an Ugly Sweater Christmas Party and Dinner on December 8th. Sharon Harbison's sweater won the contest. Her prize was an ugly sweater for next time.

We are putting in motion our arrangements for the Supreme Session in Albuquerque. We are looking forward to this trip.

We invite anyone interested in finding out more about the Patrol to call our President or Captain.

Nile Egyptian Band

Hello to all my fellow band and Nile members,

As our year winds down the Egyptian Band has experienced many fun and memorable times. I want to thank each member for their participation and to those who chaired, co-chaired, or volunteered at our fundraisers, our success is measured by each one of you.

As 2015 approaches, we do have a few openings for any interested member(s). We meet the fourth Monday of each month at 7:00pm with the exception of June, July and August. Our unit performs several times throughout the year and we have fun every time we are together. If you would like information about our unit or how to become a member, please let me or any other band member know.

Keep on practicing,
