Queen's Message

Fellow Officers and Ladies of the Household,

We have had such an exciting time with finishing up our summer and bringing in fall. I got the chance to attend several Supreme Queen visitations around the area. JPQ Krista Williams and I traveled together to visit the temples in Indianapolis and Lexington. This was an amazing experience I will not soon forget. I was also blessed enough to travel with several Isis Temple members to Neith Temple in Madisonville, KY. Pr. Royal Cheryl Stader and I traveled along with SQ Shirley Henley to St. Louis for their official visit as well. There were a lot of fun and laughs to say the least.

She stated that our memory work was the BEST, so I would like to thank everyone who worked so very hard to make all of this happen!

At our official visit and ceremonial, we welcomed four new members to Isis Temple. They are Jeanette Bullock, Christian Weaver, Brenda Vincent, and Jennifer Cross. Welcome to our new princesses! We are so very excited for you to join this wonderful organization!

Thank you to everyone who helped with the 4-H Fair concessions, worked or attended our annual Fall Card Party, and supported our annual BBQ sale. All were successful fundraisers. We are doing excellent in our fundraising endeavors this year!

Remember, we have another ceremonial scheduled for the evening of our February Stated Session. Who do you know that you'd like to propose for membership? Let's get our membership goals surpassed this year!

It was great to see so many smiling faces at our September Stated Session. We were happy to honor our Past Queens. In November, we honor Founders Day with a history lesson from PQ Nancy Markham. We will also be honoring our 50-year members and recognizing our members who have become legacy members.

I would like to thank my receptions committee: Pr. Nancy Clem, Pr. Millie Rumble, and Pr. Sylvia Pharris for all of their hard work with making the reception décor beautiful for the Supreme Queen official visit banquet. I was truly impressed! You all outdid yourselves! Thank you for all that you do.

Monday, Dec. 3, we will have a Christmas party after our Stated Session, hosted by the Dancers and Pageantry unit.

The Princeton Nile Club Cookie Exchange will be held Tuesday, Dec. 11, at R'Z in Ft. Branch. We will meet at 12 p.m. for lunch and to exchange our cookies. If you are able to attend, please bring three dozen cookies to trade. If you wish to carpool, we meet at the Holiday Inn Airport on Hwy 41 around 11:30 a.m. Please contact Pr. Royal Cheryl Stader at 812-453-2450.

I hope each and every one of you have a very happy and safe holiday season. I look forward to sharing this season of love and good cheer with you.

Nile Love and HoneyBee Hugs,
Robbi Redman, Queen

Princess Royal Cheryl Stader

Ladies of the Household,

I hope all had a great summer. I did! We went on our first cruise. But enough about me. Several of our ladies went to Princeton Nile Club. We had a good time and good food to boot. It was 4H Fair time this summer. If you've never worked at the 4H, you need to sign up. We all have a good time and great camaraderie.

September was a busy month. Being a member of the Patrol, we of course had to clean brains for the Fall Festival. Cleaning brains are not as bad as everybody thinks.

Our Supreme Queen visit was a good time. Queen Robbi looked beautiful, and she did a great job. For those who missed the banquet, the food was great and was served family style. Hadi's own Red Fez does a great job.

Queen Robbi and I went to Madisonville for their Supreme Queen visit. It was the night before ours. The day after our visit, on Sunday, we took SQ Shirley Henley to St. Louis for their visit. She is a riot and so down to earth. We had a lot of fun being with her. Oh, by the way, we took in four new Princesses! Congratulations to them and us. Hopefully, we will be a good fit together and they will enjoy the Nile as much as we do.

Nile Love,
Cheryl Stader, Pr. Royal

Princess Tirzah Casey Wonders

I first want to congratulate our new princesses from the Supreme Queen visit and ceremonial. Also, I wanted to thank PQ Linda Tribble for filling in for me during my absence.

Please continue to bring your can tabs, Box Tops for Education, non-perishable food items, toiletries, and other goodies to each Stated Session. I hope to see you at our Stated Sessions! Our next one is November 5!

Want to get more involved? Please check out one of our three great units!

Princess Badoura Karla Goff

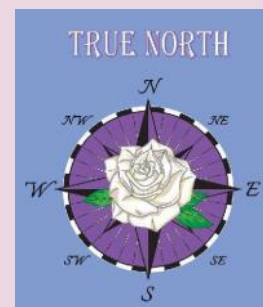

Ladies of the Household,

I was fortunate to be able to travel with Queen Robbi and Pr. Royal Cheryl to the Madisonville Supreme Queen visitation.

I really appreciate the attendance that Isis Temple had for our visitation.

Wishing everyone the best of the holidays!

PR. RECORDER JOYCE GIOLITTO

Ladies of the Household,

It will soon be time for 2019 dues. I will be mailing dues notices in January. If you have not paid your dues for 2018, please contact me. If you change your address, email, phone number, or name, please let me know. You can call me at 812-867-7644 or send an email at isisno41recorder@gmail.com. We need to keep our roster up to date.

Nile love,
Joyce Giolitto, Pr. Recorder

Sewing & Quilting

We need your help! Shriners Hospitals for Children® Chicago has requested aprons and smocks for their patients. We would greatly appreciate any donations of double-fold bias tape and grosgrain ribbon to assist us in fulfilling their need.

Our ladies work diligently every Monday beginning around 9 a.m., sewing and quilting for the Shriners Hospitals for Children. We can always use your help. Please contact me at any time if you would like to join us, or just stop by and have lunch with us; we would love to see your smiling face.

Pr. Donna Duncan 812-477-1777

Princeton Nile Club

The Princeton Nile Club met September 11 at R'z in Fort Branch. Members Nancy Clem, Terri Cheesman, Nora Miller, Sylvia Pharris, Millie Rumble, and Judy Williamson were joined by Princess Royal Cheryl Stader, Past Queen Shirley Sheets, Past Queen Jean Rickard, and Princess Recorder Joyce Giolitto.

Four were remembered for Sickness and Distress: Elinor Falls at North River Health Campus, Ruth Dunning at home, Myra Whipkey having surgery, and Judy Peak at a doctor's appointment in Louisville.

The club purchased eight Stepping Stones to Happiness to be presented to Supreme Queen Shirley Henley during her official visit and ceremonial on September 15.

The next meeting will be December 11 at R'z. This will be our election of officers and our Annual Cookie Exchange. Please bring a minimum of 3 dozen cookies. Bags will be provided so you can take a variety of goodies home with you. All members are urged to attend, and we welcome any member of DON to join us.

A Note from Princess Chaplain Della Kokomoor

Hello,

Do you know of someone in a nursing home, the hospital, or just in need of cheer? We can help! Please contact Sickness & Distress Committee Co-Chair Jean Rickard, PQ, or me if we can be of assistance with a visit, a phone call, a special prayer, or a card to let our members in need know we are thinking of them. Once you are a Daughter of the Nile you will always have life-long friends.

Membership Begins With YOU!

Ladies of the Household,

Gone is the veil of secrecy our organization once embraced. It is imperative that we take our message to the public. Survival of the organization must be our number one goal. Exposure is the key to success. Only through good exposure are we able to educate and create goodwill to the public.

It takes an entire temple to increase membership.

Wear and carry items emblazoned with our Daughters of the Nile emblem. Be prepared to answer questions. Do you have the Daughters of the Nile pamphlet "Top 10 Questions of a Prospective Member"? If your answer is no, contact me. Also, this pamphlet is available to download at <https://www.daughtersofthenile.com/10questionsbrochure.pdf>.

Even though Daughters of the Nile is not open to anyone without eligibility defined by our Supreme Temple Bylaws, once you are a member of Daughters of the Nile, you may invite your family members to join. The invitation to membership may include female relatives such as in-laws and step-sisters.

Portions of this article were excerpted from Public Relations in recruiting members, April 2015. You can download the entire article at <http://daughtersofthenile.com/May2015membership.pdf>. If you have any problems downloading, please let me know.

Egyptian Band

On behalf of the Isis Temple Egyptian Band, I would like to thank everyone who helped with our Band Box at the Fall Festival this year. There is much hard work done in order to make our booth a success...from cleaning before to working shifts and cleaning afterwards. A special thanks to PQ Tina Dobbs, who served as chairman this year. She and her committee did an excellent job of organizing, scheduling shifts, and ordering everything. Thanks also to the ladies who purchased the beef and to everyone who showed up to prepare it. Many thanks to the people who purchased items from our booth. We appreciate each of you and hope that you will continue to support our endeavors. See you next year!

The Egyptian Band meets the 4th Monday of each month at 7:00 pm, except June, July, and August.

Patrol

Greetings! It's fall y'all. The Nile Patrol, A.K.A. The Brainy Bunch, enjoyed cleaning, frying, and selling brain sandwiches at the 97th West Side Nut Club Fall Festival. Everyone would agree it's hard work, but it is also a time of sharing and camaraderie with close friends while working to support our beloved philanthropy. A special shout-out to PQ Jean Rickard and Pr. Donna Duncan for again chairing the Brain Booth. Their organizational skills, dedication, and commitment are much appreciated! Thank you to all the members for your very hard work to ensure success.

PQ Karla Goff continues to serve as our fearless and valuable captain. We represented Isis Temple at the Supreme Queen visit by serving as flag bearers and performing for SQ Shirley.

As we approach the seasons of thanksgiving and giving, may each of you and your families have many blessings of joy, good health, and prosperity.

Nile Love and Hugs,
Kathy Stewart, President

The Patrol meets the 2nd Monday of each month at 7:00 pm, except June, July, and August. If you are interested in joining a unit, we invite you to attend one of our meetings to learn more.
